

"I KNOW MY SOUL IS GOING TO HELL" UTTERS SUICIDE

(Special to Review.)

TOMBSTONE, Dec. 26.—"I know what I have done. Pray for my soul. I know my soul is going to hell."

The above words were uttered by Albert Riley, a young married man of this city, after taking a dose of poison with suicidal intent at his residence Christmas night.

Riley lived four or five hours after taking the poison, but all efforts to save his life were fruitless. A stomach pump was used and the man vomited freely, but the arsenic had already circulated through his system with deadly effect. Riley had been drinking heavily about town for the past two or three days, and the supposition is that he became despondent, and suffering from a temporary fit of melancholia, conceived the idea of self-destruction.

On the way home from town on Tuesday night he stopped at Plach's drug store and bought three packages of Rough-on-Rates. Arriving home he entered the front room where his wife, Mrs. Cowles, his mother-in-law, and Mrs. Boatman were seated. He handed one of the packages of rat poison to Mrs. Boatman and another to Mrs. Cowles, keeping one in his possession. From the front room he passed into the kitchen where he emptied the contents of the package into a cup, filled the cup with water and drank its contents.

He made his way to his room where his cries soon aroused the other occupants of the house. Dr. Hugar was quickly summoned and for a while it was thought that his life would be saved, but after working with him for four hours he died at 1 o'clock on Wednesday morning.

The deceased was raised in Tombstone and has been married for the past three years. He was a miner by occupation, 29 years of age, and a member of the local lodge of Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias. His father, N. J. Riley, is employed at Mammoth, in Pinal county, and has been notified of his son's death. The funeral will be held tomorrow.

BUT LITTLE TROUBLE NOW

Traffic Manager Dunlap of the Southern Pacific Issues Orders to Accept Both Local and Through Freight.

Firemen Are Confident They Will Win Fight and Get Assurance From the B. R. T. of Their Support.

HOUSTON, Tex., Dec. 26.—Reports to headquarters of the Atlantic system of the Southern Pacific lines today show the lines are experiencing little difficulty in operating trains on account of the strike of locomotive firemen on the Houston division of the Galveston, Harrisburg & San Antonio lines.

Fourteen freight trains out of sixteen scheduled were handled, and all scheduled on the Victoria division and on the Texas & New Orleans east of this city were operated. The same is true, according to reports, on the El Paso division west of San Antonio.

In view of this Traffic Manager C. K. Dunlap has issued notices on all points to accept both local and through freight.

At Lobe, near El Paso, Engineer Kutz is reported to have been assaulted and so severely injured that he could not continue his run.

H. E. Willis, assistant grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, says his organization is thoroughly satisfied with the situation, and all its members are going to do all in their power to maintain their contract with the company and keep trains moving.

Chas. P. Neill, United States commissioner of labor, will arrive in Houston tomorrow from Washington and tender his friendly offices in the settlement of the controversy.

EL PASO, Dec. 26.—There is no change tonight in the local situation in the strike of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen of the Galveston, Harrisburg & San Antonio Railway, other than giving out a statement by Joseph Bedford, chairman of the grievance committee of the firemen. Bedford in his statement says the firemen are confident of winning the strike, and that they have "assurances" of support from the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, Order of Railway Conductors and Brotherhood of Railway Telegraphers. These orders are in full sympathy, the statement declares, with the firemen. The statement concludes:

"Beyond the fact that we leave their cause of justice to the engineers' action, we have nothing to say about them."

Bedford declares the firemen will welcome the labor commissioner, as they are "willing now and have been urging arbitration for a month."

Trainmaster Wade, of the El Paso division, stated to the Associated Press correspondent tonight that passenger trains are moving on time and freight trains go out as fast as they can be made up. Speaking of the statement made by Chairman Bedford, Wade said there was no foundation for the allegation that the firemen had sought arbitration, but on the contrary they had refused the company's offer to arbitrate the matter.

MISSOURI AND OHIO AFTER STANDSTILL

—Columbus Dispatch.

KING PETER TO BE DETHRONED MAY BE EVEN ASSASSINATED

BELGRADE, Dec. 26.—The national assembly finally has accepted the loan and assessment bill, which was sent today for signature to King Peter.

The debate on these measures today were attended by disorderly scenes on the part of members of the assembly, arising from an open expression of sentiments against the present Karagorjevic dynasty, which give rise to reports in German and Austrian quarters of a movement to dethrone King Peter. Following the street disorders of the last few days, the occurrences in the chamber today have added to the seriousness of the present situation.

King Peter is at present confronted with many difficult problems, not the least of which is a renewed activity of the supporters of the late King Alexander and Queen Draga, who were murdered the night of June 10, 1903, and a popular ill feeling has been aroused by the recent escapades of George, the crown prince.

One of the deputies opposed the loan on the ground that members of the reigning family would personally pocket a large portion of it, and finally the debates brought out anti-dynastic demonstrations in which a number of riotous students sustained serious injuries. Premier Pasic has received a number of threatening letters intimating that the present dynasty will meet a fate similar to that of his predecessor.

The late King Alexander was a member of the Obrenovic family. It is asserted that secret meetings of the anti-dynastic leaders have been held here for the purpose of selecting a European prince as a successor to King Peter, in the event of a successful dynastic movement.

NEGROES ARE AGAIN QUIET

Tragedy On Train Caused Considerable Feeling Between Blacks and Whites, But Soldiers Have Situation in Hand

MEMPHIS, Dec. 26.—Advices from Scooba and Wabash, Miss., tonight state that quiet prevails at both these towns, as well as throughout the surrounding territory, and troops and civil authorities are in complete control of the situation.

According to the most reliable reports the disturbances of the last few days in Klamath county are not as serious as at first reported. They are attributed to the action of a reckless mob, who in searching for the negro who attacked Conductor Cooper aboard a Mobile and Ohio train last Sunday and shot and killed Constable O'Brien of Wabash, have killed three negroes and wounded several others.

The feeling against negroes was intensified by the killing by negroes of Conductor Harrison, of the Mobile & Ohio railroad at Crawfordville on Monday night, and believing that the mob was beyond control, Deputy Sheriff Alexander, at Scooba, asked that troops be sent there in order that innocent negroes might be protected.

Two companies of state troops are now encamped at Scooba.

Late this evening Governor Vardaman, accompanied by twenty-five members of the company of state militia stationed at Jackson, left for Scooba. Governor Vardaman stated that there had been no fresh outbreak, but he was going to the scene in order that he might make a personal investigation.

The troops are to be relieved within four hours.

MOB FORMED TO LYNCH MURDERER

Heinous Crime Arouses Farmers and Merchants to Seek Blood of Tramp Who Killed Henry Lavenmeyer.

Sheriff Starts to Pueblo With Prisoner to Avoid a Hanging. But Is Met in Road By 300 Incensed Citizens.

LAS ANIMAS, Colo., Dec. 26.—After several hours of diligent effort at storming the county jail here, a mob which had gathered after dark for the purpose of avenging the death of Henry Lavenmeyer, a well known and prosperous farmer living near here, who was murdered in a most brutal way by a tramp, dispersed and it is not thought that any further attempt will be made tonight to carry out the plan of vengeance.

The mob worked its way into the jail as far as the steel doors by breaking down the wooden doors, but met with the stern refusal of the jailkeepers to turn over the prisoner sought for and finally gave up the task. When apprehended the murderer gave his name as Lawrence Leberg and many believe him to be insane.

Leberg's crime was the work of a fiend. Alighting from a Santa Fe freight train yesterday afternoon at Robinson station, near this city, he crossed the river and secured a meal from a farmer named George Purvis. When Leberg finished eating he demanded lodging, but was refused because of his abusive language. Leberg left the Purvis farm, and after preparing a camp on the river bank, started back toward the Purvis place, evidently bent on revenge. He fired to a haystack belonging to Henry Lavenmeyer, thinking it was the property of Purvis. The fire attracted the attention of Lavenmeyer, who took Leberg into custody, allowing him to feed himself on his horse. When Lavenmeyer discovered that Leberg was bent on revenge, he opened fire at the road entering his ranch. Leberg struck him on the head with a hammer which he found tied to Lavenmeyer's saddle. The latter fell, stunned by the blow, and Leberg beat him over the head until he became tired. Leberg left his victim lying in the road and went back to his camp at the river side. He returned soon after and with his pocket knife cut Lavenmeyer's throat from ear to ear and attempted to scalp him. Burning hair attracted neighbors to the scene who found Lavenmeyer dead and horribly mutilated. A posse was formed and Leberg was caught a mile or two away, riding Lavenmeyer's horse. He was taken to jail quietly and even boasted of his crime, saying he had drunk the blood of his victim. Leberg was brought here and lodged in jail.

At noon today Sheriff Browne started for Pueblo with his prisoner for better protection, but was met by a crowd of 300 people, who protested against Leberg's removal, and he was again placed in jail here. Although there were frequent reports of mobs organizing, not until this afternoon about carrying out their work of vengeance.
